In G.O. No. Ms. 1947 Revenue dated 22-6-1943, 75% of the assessment on dry lands was remitted in 9 villages of Siruguppa taluk in Fasli 1352 and the balance ordered to be postponed for collection in fasli 1353. In fasli 1353, the suspended revenue was again postponed for collection to fasli 1354 in G.O. No.Ms. 522 Revenue dated 15-3-1944 for the reason that some time should be allowed to ryots to recover from the affects of bad season. As the harvest in Fasli 1354 was also poor, the amount ordered to be collected was further postponed for collection in fasli 1355 in G.O. Ms. 865 Revenue dated 25-4-1945. But in this fasli (1355) almost whole of Siruguppa taluk is reported to be more or less affected and the outturn statement submitted by the Tahsildar, Siruguppa, shows that the above 9 villages have been severely affected by adverse season conditions. Hence the balance f 25% of dry assessment of fasli 1352 postponed for collection ccessively for three faslis may be remitted under B.S.O. 14 aragraph 9.

2. The amount involved is Rs.6621-14-0
